The games were sharp and interesting.

As a curtain raiser for the big international doubles at Wimbledon this afternoon, F. L. Riseley, the Northern champion, played an exhibition game with Kreigh Collins, the American reserve man. The Englishman won by 2-0. The scores were 6-2, 6-1.

The United States lost all chance of recovering the trophy in 1906. The British holders, having won the two singles yesterday, have now taken three out of four matches. The Americans themselves realized that in the enforced absence of Beals C. Wright they had hardly a ghost of a chance.
